Ask your dealer

GLASGO

church Sunday morning because of the storm of Saturday drifting the roads full of snow.

The Glasgo teachers, Miss Young and Miss Malloy, were unable to go to their respective homes Friday night, traveling was so bad.

Mrs. H. J. Cole is in Westfield,fl.

Mass., having received word of the serious lilness of her sister, who was keen to the hospital.

Mr. Gray, who lives in the south part of the town, had a fine large wheelbarrow shipped to him from his carpenter shop in New Hampshire, his former home, before buying the Chapman farm.

man farm.

The blizzard of Saturday added more snow to the snow and ice which has covered the ground for several

If a married man thinks he is the head of the house that's all that is

Coughs and Colds That "Hang On"

A Real Menace to Everybody -How to Get Rid of Them

net get rid of your cough or cold.-ifin spite of what you are doing for it, it still hangs on, you tre in very real

you have this irritating cough or long-standing cold. the more your resisting power is lowered and the greater need for a

Wholesome food tonic,
You will find the strength-giving re-You will find the strength-giving resistance power to get rid of that cold or cough in Father John's Medicine. It soothes and heals the breathing passages, drives off impurities and actually re-builds wasted flesh and strength. You can give Father John's Medicine to any member of your family with entire safety because it is guaranteed free from alcohol or dangerous drugs in any form whatever.

n any form whatever.

WESTERLY

Edward Vealey, who was employed at the plant of the Bradford Dyeing association in Bradford, was before Judge Oliver H. Williams in the Third district court, Friday, charged with the theft of lumber to the value of $35, the property of Charles P. Ecteston, contractor, erecting buildings for the Bradford Dyeing association. Vealey, who pleaded guilty, said he care from Fridand event years upon nection with the organization, and $35. the property of Charles P. Eccleston, contractor, erecting buildings for the Bradford Dyeing association. Vealey, who pleaded guilty, said he came from England seven years ago, and had been employed at Bradford for the past five years and up to the time of his arrest, when he was discharged. He declared this theft was the only biemish on his character, and could not understand just why he did it. He said the realization of the crime had been a severe punishment to him and brought undeserved disgrace and depression t ohis wife.

Town Solicitor Agard told, the court nection with the organization, and there will be special acts by profes-sional entertainers.

and had been employed at Bradford for the past five years and up to the time of his arrest, when he was discharged. He declared this theft was the only blemish on his character, and could not understand just why he did it. He said the realization of the crime had been a severe punishment to him and brought undeserved disgrace and depression to his wife.

Town Solicitor Agard told, the court that the act, or acts of Vealey were premeditated, as the lumber had been stolen piecemeal by Vealey, who used it in the construction of a garage, painting the work as it progressed in the hope of preventing identification of the stolen building material

While there was no mitigating circumstances; the man keenly felt his situation and realized the possible and perhaps deserved punishment, which inflicted must be borne in part by his innocent wife. Therefore, the solicitor said he would not urge the court cumstances: the man keenly felt his situation and realized the possible and perhaps deserved punishment, which inflicted must be borne in part by his innocent wife. Therefore, the solicitor said he would not urge the court for jail sentence. Vealey was fined $25 and costs which he paid.

James Mollonson, accused of stealing a block, tackle and falls, and a hoisting jack, from the George C. Moore company, changed his plea of not guilty to nolo. His counsel, Attorney Roche, pleaded for leniency for the accused on the ground that his client took the articles without consent of the owner, but with no intension of stealing them. He intended to return them, but this he failed to do.

Solicitor Agard stated that Mollonson while in the employ of the George C. Moore company, stole the block, tackle fals and jack, and if there were mitigating circumstances in the case he did not know what they are Judge Williams continued the case for one week for sentence.

Jehn W, Murphy, formerly of Westerly, president of the Rhode Island branch of the American Federation of Labor, will preside at a convention of delegates to be held in Providence on

John W. Murphy, formerly of Westerly, president of the Rhode Island branch of the American Federation of Labor, will preside at a convention of delegates to be held in Providence on Sunday. Whether or not organized labor in the state will go into pollitics as a body, or confine its political activity to supporting candidates of both parties known to be friendly to labor, will be questions of interest before the semi-annual convention. ore the semi-annual convention.

Since the annual session, sixteen unions with a total membership of 2. 600 have become affiliated with the state federation. The additional del-egates from these unions will make the number larger than at any previous meeting.

Charles Harvey, 63, died Thursday at his home in Wakefield. He was born September 18, 1857, in South Kingstown, the son of John A. and Frances Sweet Harvey, his mother being a member of a noted family of bone-setters. He is survived by his widow, a son, George E., a daughter, Miss Mary E. and a brother, Edward, and his aged mother. Mr. Harvey was a former counciller of Commander Perry council, Junior Order United American Mechanics, and an active American Mechanics, and an active worker of the organization.

The Westerly Cycle club commenc ed the observance of its silver jubilee Friday night in the Rhide Island, with a special ladies night. There was a ministrel entertainment give nby members, a whist with elegant fa-vors and a dance. The large dance Displays of Spring Merchandise Throughout the Store

REFRESHINGLY DAINTY AND APPROPRIATE

Spring brings its own colorings, and after the darker, heavier tones of the Winter Millinery, the brighter hues of the new Hats are Jade, a translucent green, is strongly featured, as is the odd shade which has appropriately been called "Rust." Both of these are very different from the usual and are really beautiful. Straws and braids in enameled effects, both in black and in colors are used generously, the effect of light and shade upon their glossy surfaces being very effective.

Our display is most complete, in point of size as well as variety, and hundreds of beautiful models are ready for your choice.

YOU ARE INVITED TO INSPECT THEM

SPRING APPAREL

Women's and Misses' Coats, Suits and Dresses

The Garment Section is ready, too, with its display of the Spring Apparel. Coats, Suits, Dresses and Blouses, in all of the accepted styles for Spring are being shown, and in all the colorings which make the Spring garments so attractive. Smartness, distinction and good solid value will be found insepar-able in our opening display.

WE FEATURE "BETTY WALES" DRESSES

What's New?

An Answer From the Silk Dress Goods Section

Every day sees additions to our stock of the season's novelties in Silks and Dress Goods. Each year, of course, it seems as if the designs and the colorings, and the textures, were more beautiful than before. This year is no exception. When you view these beautiful weaves you will have to admit that 1920 can hold its own with any year, and that the after-war period has produced some of the most charming and artistic weaves that you have ever

AMONG THE LATEST ARE:

Radium Prints are among the most charming of the newer silks. They are a Taffeta weave, soft in finish and as lustrous as a satin, and the designs and colorings are exquisite. The width, 40 inches, is the best for general use, and the price is low as prices go this year-$6.00 a yard.

Printed Georgette Crepe is another very new novelty-a veritable textile confection. The silk itself is of very good quality, and the patterns and colorings are as dainty as can be. One of the designs, the American Brauty Rose is stunning. Width 4 inchesprices $4.00 to $5.00 a yard.

Plain Georgettes we can now show in forty different shades, a most wonderful assortment. all of them in the 40-inch width. One of the nower and most attractive colorings is "Jade," a clear translucent green which has become imis $3.00 a yard.

Pure Worsted Plaids in styles and weights correct for separate skirts are now coming in, and have been received with favor. You will need one of these skirts this year. Prices from $7.25 to $9.75 a

Wool Jerseys, in both suiting and dress weights continue in popularity. A splendid color assortment is offered in the dress Jerseys at $4.50 a yard, and some handsome heather mixtures in the suiting at $5.00. Both are 54 inches wide, and absolutely pure Suede Velour is another stun-ning fabric for sports wear. A soft welour, 54 inches wide in a wanderful, silection of sixteen staple and pastelle shades. The price is $6.50 a vard.

Figured Goat Linings of cot-ton, or cotton and silk are shown in greater variety than ever before, and never in more charming designs and color-ings.' Prices from $1.00 to $2.00 a yard, the better grades being a mixture of mercerized cotton and silk.

The Newest Spring MILLINERY

- YOU'LL ENJOY SEEING

The New Millinery

It is so distinctly new and unusual in style that it will quickly appeal to you.

Shapes are so varied and materials so skillfully used that mere descriptions are inadequate - you must see them and try

The prices we are asking are worthy your careful consideration.

contract against the city or town li-Mrs. Maria Norton Chappell, one of Mrs. Maris Norton Chappell, one of the oldest persons in the country, observed her 165th birthday Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Francis B. West, on Seckonk, R. I. Among the guests were her son, Herbert E. Chappell, of Willimantic and his wife. Although her vision is dim she retains her faculties and is able to walk, with assistance. Mrs. Chappell was born in Rehobeth, March II, 1815, the daughter of Elliphet and Mary Chase Horton. In 1847 Kshe married Ralph Chappell who died in 1832.

Without Westerly, Woonsocket, Newport, Cranston and East Green-wich, the total received by the Near East appeal committee of Rhode Is-iand is $68,884.46. Silas W. Perry, state director, with Mrs. Mande El-liott Howe, and others are now in Newport, Organization was effected ewport. Organization was effected n Cranston Friday. Early next week he committee will visit Westerly.

the committee will visit Westerly.

The local and railroad police made a second raid Friday afterneon at the home of Mariano Strafissi in search of merchandise stolen from freight cars while in transit. The officers found and selzed eight bags of seed corn of a shipment of twelve bags that were stolen from a car about three weeks ago that stood on a siding not far from Strafissi's home in Oak street. A pair of shoes two hammers and a lot of rubber heels were also selzed.

The raiding party was composed of

Chief Brown, Sergeant Ferguson and Officer Henry Chase, of the lo-mal police and Captain Roche and enl police and Captain Roche, and Sergeant Greene of the railroad police. Striffissi is one of the six men arested for the freight car break at Bradford Wednesday and who is under a bond of $5,000 for hearing in the United States district court at Providence. The seed corn is valued at $1,00 a pound and the total value of merchandise recovered in Friday's raid is $600.

Local Laconics.

died in 1882.

The Westerly town council has not selected a water commissioner to succeed the late Louis W. Arnold. A council said Friday afternoon that gregational church Sunday morning. council had not given the matter consideration.

So far as can be ascertained there has been no declaration of candidacy for membership on the Westerly town council to fill the vacancy caus; ed by the death of Council Charles

Friday's fog had much to do with ne reduction of the snow hanks in cont of the post office and elsewhere about town, Consul Mariano Vervena, of the Italian consulate in Providence, will address a mass meeting Sunday in the interest of the Italian Victory

STONINGTON

The funeral of John A. Burns, who died at Fort Totten. Texas, was held Friday with a mass of requiem in St. Mary's church. Rev. J. E. O'Brien, celebrant. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends, the members of James W. Harvey Post, American Legion, attending in a body. The post members acted as escort to St. Mary's cemetery and burial was with mill-tary honors. The firing squad was composed of Peter H. Flynn, Jr., Michael Sergeko, Frederick D. Lewis, John J. De Braggio, William J. Higgins, Thomas McGowan, Joseph E. Cushman and Leonard Patterson, The bearers were Otho S. Flynn, Edward J. Ennis, Matthew T. Leahy, Frank Mrs. Emma Danielson received a letter recently from her cousin, Mrs. Charles Lewis, who with her sister. The funeral of John A. Burns.

OLDS Head orychest-me best treated externally with VICKS VAPORUBAL be represented at the state convention in New Haven by Bourdon A. Babcock. Frederick oulter, National of the library reading room object to publishers having a loose sheet in newspapers, as they must be placed cross-wise on the file sticks and cannot be readily read. The body of William Cullen, who died in a New London hospital soon after arrival there, was buried, not hurned in Potter's field of Jordan cemetery.

be represented at the state convention in New Haven by Bourdon A. Babcock, Frederick oulter, Nathaniel P. Noyes and Benjamin H. Hewitt, Henry A. Steale presided at the caucus and Jerome Anderson, Jr., was cierk. The town committee is composed of James H. Weeks, Henry A. Stahle, Seth N. Williams, Cornelius J. Donohue and Sidney Siswick.

Stonington Pointer.

Alexander P. Loper has gone to Alexander P. Loper has gone to Alexander P.

Alexander P. Loper has gone to Alexandria Bay, N. Y., on a business trip.

Prof. Edwin H. Kellogg of Connecticut college, will preach in the Conticut college, will preach in the Conticut college.

LEBANON

At the annual meeting of the Leba-non Creamery company the following officers were elected: President, G. H. Hewlit; vice president, W. G. Thomas: Hewitt; vice president, W. G. Thomas; secretary, C. L. Pultz; treasurer, A. G. Kneeland; directors, G. H. Hewitt, W. G. Thomas, A. G. Kneeland, C. S. Briggs, J. R. Foster, F. N. Taylor, G. H. Thomas, O. L. Pultz, A. G. Larkin, Ten thousand dollars more business was done than in the previous year. The annual report of the superintendent of the Creamery company for 1919 shows: Number of pounds cream received, 457,040; number of pounds butter made, 100,283; number of pounds of butter fat, 89,791; average per cent, of test, 19; average amount letter recently from her cousin, Mrs. Charles Lewis, who with her sister. Mrs. Deacon, has been spending the past year at the Hawalian Islands, that she is now at Panama and expects soon to visit Chill. South America. Mrs. Lewis is the daughter of Dr. Charles Wetmore and is remembered by many Lebanon friends, having visited here several times.

Miss Mabel Noves has returned home after spending several months

According to a certificate filed in the office of secretary of state, the Rhode Island Dental society has changed its name, to Rhode Island State Dental society.

Nature is getting in some very effective work in the way of clearing the snow and ice from the public army and Frank V. Matthews, Harry thoroughfares. There must be overtime, however, before the frozen collection is removed from in front of the First Baptist church. This is the only stretch of sidewalk in Broad street, where the shovel has not been street, where the shovel has not been street, where the shovel has not been street. We have by Bourdon A. Babrock. Frederick guiller, Na. Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Manning and two in this section.

Jacobrating SDIGAS SDIGAS SOLUTION AND SO

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Manning and two sons of Yantic spent Sunday with sons of Yantic spent Sunday with Mrs. Manning's parents, Mr. and Mrs.

. A. Hoxie.
There was a large attendance at the auction at W. A. Mason's Wednesday.
Three roads in town are closed, the melting snow making them unsafe. In one place a small bridge was washed ing over its injuries.

C. L. Nevins of Hartford and Walter Collins of Willimantic spent two days this week at the Lebanon telephone exchange. Elmer Lord of Hebron has bired the farm on Babcock Hill owned by Mrs. Brady. School at the Center reopened Wednesday after being closed for two weeks, the teacher, Miss Amidon, hav-ing been III. She went to her home in ing been ill. She went to her home in Willington until able to resume her Edmond Manning has enlisted in the aviation service and is to leave for illinois next Monday.

SALEM

There will be no preaching service recent visitor in town.

J. D. Fraser and Arthur Coffey were in New London Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bliven and their

Tuesday. The Center and Harris district schools reopened this week, having been closed a week because of illness of teacher and pupils.

Among recent Coichester callers are Walter DeWolfe, William Darling, Ed-ward Mitchell, A. Scimenowitz and Carl Rogers. The influenza patients are improv-

Frank Brown returned from Boston

There was no mail Saturday of last week owing to the blocked condition of the roads and the blizzard which was then faging.

BE A MAN

It's a mighty good thing, while you're running life's race, Just to pause, as you go, and come face to face With your conscience, and ask it a question or two, For it's right you should know what your life means to yo

Have you done things worth while, have you drifted along; . Have you filled it with sighs, have you filled it with song, Have you helped when you should, have you tried to do right, Have you struggled for good, or just fought for might?

Have you given your hand to some fellow in need, Have you sneered at the man who was not of your creed, Have you been open hearted and ready to do, Have you tried to be just, have you tried to be true?

Of the other chap's faults—but our own faults, ch, well! We are cowards at time and the truth, you will find, Is a thing we dislike, for it's rather unkind.

But the past, let it rest. Give a thought to today, And tomorrow, as well, for the time's growing gray; Do the things that you should, do the best that you can, Crown your life with your deeds—be a red blooded man!

And Subscribe to 5, 10 or 15. Shares in the

Norwich Building and Loan Association

It's not Charity, it's an Investment that will help others as well as yourself. It's something your conscience will approve of. Don't Wait, Do It Today-BE A MAN.